ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY:

Bhagat Phool Singh Mahila Vishwavidyalaya (BPSMV) is the first State women university of North India, Established by the Haryana State Legislature Act XXXI of 2006, in August 2006. The University genesis goes back to 1936 when legendary social reformer Bhagat Phool Singh Ji established a Kanya Gurukul with just three girls at Khanpur Kalan. Today driven by its vision of “Women empowerment through education”, BPSMV is the University with a difference. The University has marked its presence on International level too by signing MOUs with several Foreign Universities. As a result Faculty and students from both sides benefit immensely. BPSMV is an epitome of holistic education starting at Montessori level till Doctorate, amalgamating traditional ethos with modern values.

ABOUT THE DEPARTMENT:

The Department of Laws, BPSMV has been established in the year 2003 as P.S.D Girls Law College. After establishment of BPS Mahila Vishwavidyalaya P.S.D Girls Law College became part of this esteemed endeavor. The Department of Laws has an aim of nurturing young minds into lawyers, judges and other members of legal fraternity who are agile and aware of their social responsibility and thus awakening gender justice. The Department offers various courses besides B.ALL.B, B.B.ALL.B(Integrated), LL.M one year programme, PhD, P.G Diploma in Human Rights, Cyber Law and Insurance Law.

ABOUT THE SEMINAR:

The aspirations and ideals of our nation, the largest democracy of the World ‘The Union of India’ are clearly envisaged in the Preamble of our Constitution.

“WE, THE PEOPLE OF INDIA, having solemnly resolved to constitute India into a SOVERIGN SOCIALIST SECULAR DEMOCRATIC REPUBLIC and to secure to all its citizens;
JUSTICE, social, economic and political;
LIBERTY of thought, expression, belief, faith and worship
EQUALITY of status and of opportunity; and to promote among them all FRATERNITY assuring the dignity of the individual and the unity and integrity of the nation...”

The Preamble is not a mere preface to the sacred document but it highlights the true spirit of the Constitution. The essence of the Constitution lies in laying the foundations of an Egalitarian pattern of society as visualized by the founders of our nation. As Martin Luther King rightly observed:

“Injustice anywhere is threat to Justice everywhere.”

The first and foremost step in curbing injustice in any form is to provide equal and fair opportunity for everyone to live in just conditions of the society or in other words' "SOCIAL JUSTICE".

Social justice issues occur globally, nationally, regionally, locally, and within groups. These issues are a result of unequal wealth and resource distribution, unfair treatment of individuals on the basis of caste, creed, sex and economic conditions and allied factors furthering such segregation.

The aim of this seminar is to create awareness and sensitization among different segments of the society and the vulnerable and marginalized groups in particular. We strive to provide a platform for thought provoking, realistic debate and discussions.
